

Holy Sound

Tear down walls that I've created
Even now my heart is jaded
I want to be liberated

Many idle words I've stated
Foolishly with You debated
Too much truth has been evaded

(Chorus) Breaking the strongholds that keep me bound
The idols are crumbling down ~ down ~ down ~ down
Take back the land that is stolen ground
Go forth with the Holy Sound Holy Sound!

Be there love where I have hated
Honesty where I have shaded
Loyalty where I've degraded

Obedience where I have waited
Patience where I'm quickly grated
Passion where the fire has faded

(Chorus) to (Instrumental Bridge)

Once I was incriminated
In You I am vindicated
Darkness You have infiltrated

I want to be recreated
Born afresh to You related
With Your Spirit consummated

(Chorus)

May my mind be excavated
Totally on love fixated
With You solely fascinated

All distractions dissipated
Through me You are emanated
I will shine illuminated

(Chorus)
