

You'll Be My Home

Though it is time to say goodbye
I know love divine will never die

As I leave Please believe
That in time we shall receive
Everywhere You are there
In my heart and in my prayers

(Chorus) Oh I will miss you Believe this is true
It will be bliss to simply see your shining face
And I will need you always
Plead that I may
Feel your warm embrace
Then I will kiss you And promise this to
Never dismiss the greatest love I've ever known
I'll never roam again alone
You'll be my home

Now once again we turn the page
How do we begin this trying stage

Letting go Is hard you know
But if love decides to grow
Then we'll see We're meant to be
And from all doubt we will be free

(Chorus)

(Bridge) Then I will never leave your side
I will forever be your bride

(Chorus) Oh I will miss you Believe this is true
It will be bliss to simply see your shining face
And I will need you always
Plead that I may
Feel your warm embrace
Then I will kiss you And promise this to
Never dismiss the greatest love I've ever known
I'll never roam again alone
You'll be my home
